

geoggers

Across

4. what is the name of deposits on a flood plain

6. what is the name of the embankment on either side of a river on a flood plain

7. which type of flow includes stream flow and ground water flow

8. what is the name of the lake that forms in an old meander

9. what is the type of erosion that breaks the load into smaller and smaller pieces

11. which direction of erosion is there more of in the upper course of a river

12. what occurs when discharge becomes greater than bank-full discharge

Down

1. what is formed on the outside of a meander

2. what term refers to the place where two rivers meet

3. what is the word that describes the corkscrew movement of water in a river

5. by what process is a point bar formed

10. by what process is large boulders moved