

geography

Across

- 1. the equator and prime meridian divide the earth into four sections
- 3. the study of the world's physical features - its landforms, bodies of water, climates, soils and plants
- 5. imaginary lines that circles the globe east to west and measure distance north and south
- 7. flat drawing that shows some or the earths entire surface
- 8. a specific description of where a place is located
- 9. continents- Earth's land surface is divided into 7 landmasses

10. a general description of where a place is located

11. imaginary lines that circles the globe north to south and measure distance east to west

Down

- 2. imaginary line that circles the globe north to south and cuts the globe in half creating the east and west hemispheres
- 4. imaginary line that circles the globe east to west and cuts the globe in half creating the north and south hemispheres
- 6. a spherical, ball-shaped, model of the earth