

Name: _____ Date: _____ Period: _____

government crossword

Across

1. elections are held no earlier than?
3. what serves as a pep rally for the upcoming election
9. what are elections that decide who will serve as the representatives of the party in the upcoming election
11. who do presidents announce their goals to
13. the Louisiana purchase is a example of
14. what amendment states that if the president is no longer president the Vice President will take over
16. a meeting at which local members of a political party register their preference among candidates running for office or select delegates to attend a convention.
20. veto may be overridden with how may votes in both chambers
21. how many years is it before every single election

23. true or false the vice president serves as the president of the senate
24. serves the same term as the president (4 years)
25. prevent a passed bill from becoming a law
26. the president is also called the chief of
27. what is the head of each cabinet called
28. when was the last presidential succession
29. "may be amended by the senate" is a presidential?
30. branch of government that serves over 300 million people

Down

2. when does the inauguration take place
4. how many electoral votes are there in all
5. the president is the head of

6. what position must have the same qualifications of the president
7. organized method of resolving the issue of who is the head of the executive branch of the government
8. what is the minimum number of electoral votes someone needs to win the election
10. how many cabinets are there currently
12. elections are held no later than?
15. how long does someone have to be in the united states of america to run for president
17. responsible for electing the president based on popular vote
18. ability to change the sentences of convicted people
19. every member of the executive branch serves this person
22. the president has to be a natural born what in order to run for president