

Name: _____

Date: _____

history crossword

Across

5. Those who are native to the region or country, a capital letter is used to refer to Australian Aboriginal or torres strait islander peoples

6. A period of time when large parts of the planet were covered in ice

8. Researchers who study cultures, especially ancient civilisations by excavating and describing their remains

9. An era is characterised by the adaption of hunting, collecting and fishing and taming animals

10. Our species of modern humans

Down

1. A family of primates who date back about million years

2. An era of hunting and gathering and the use of stone tools

3. A term used to describe the period of humans past when stone was the primary material to make

4. An era of making by the development of farming and domestication of animals

7. The study of past through excavating and interpreting the remains found