

horse breeds

Across

2. Portuguese horse breed, closely related to the Spanish Andalusian horse.
 4. With long, thick manes and tails, this breed is strong, compact and elegant. While in the past many different coat colors were found, most present-day are grey or bay. Today they are used for dressage, driving, saddle seat and even jumping.
 5. the most rare horse breed, endangered breed
 6. Known as the fastest breed of horse over short distances, popular mounts for both trail and competition.
 10. leopard complex spotting
 12. this gentle giant has an enormous capacity for pulling weight
 17. fastest horse breed
 19. originating in Friesland, the Friesian is also known as...
 20. world's oldest breed
 21. the most expensive breed
 22. This pony has a beautiful nature. They are kind, caring, willing and trusting. They have a gentle disposition, love human affection, are inquisitive are very easy to handle, is a safe and sensible breed, which makes them a fantastic mount for both children and adults alike. They are extremely intelligent and very trainable.
 25. the national horse breed of Ireland which developed primarily for farm use.
 27. the smallest horse breed

Down

1. this breed first originated in medieval times, with the first documented present-day one being foundation stallion 249 Folie, born in 1874
 3. every member of this breed today can trace its existence back to a single horse named Hambletonian 10.
 7. friendly, intelligent, and easy to train. These ponies have excellent temperaments and originated in southern Wales.
 8. largest horse breed
 9. The Romani people developed Horses for the special purpose of pulling the wagons that they lived in
 11. "smoothest horse in the world" because of its rhythmical, quick-stepping gaits that allow a rider to sit in the saddle virtually without moving. any coat color and often have long manes and tails. Their natural gaits are incredibly comfortable, though they can also be trained to perform different gaits for competition.
 13. a massive draft horse that measures between 16.2 and 17 hands tall.
 15. a long-lived horse with a 30-35 year average life span. – They're usually born black, then change slowly over 6 to 10 years to their trademark white color.
 30. Technically not a breed but a group that encompasses a number of types and breeds, including the Hanoverian, Holsteiner, Oldenburg, and Trakhner.

14. this breed is referenced in Viking mythology with night and day being pulled by two horses of this breed called Hrimfaxi and Skinfaxi.
 15. one of the oldest horse breeds to exist in Britain, named after the Islands, where these ponies originated. These islands are barren and harsh, and the breed grew hardy to cope with this challenging environment.
 16. Mountain draft horse that originates out of the Austrian Alps
 18. characteristics of the western stock horse and the colors of a pinto.
 23. Figure, a bay colt born in 1789, was the first of this breed
 24. the descendants of Iberian or Spanish horses that were brought to North, Central, and South America during the Colonial Era
 26. born with the ability to walk, trot and canter.