

hunger games

Across

- 1. a difficult unpleasant or embarrassing situation
- 3. very weak or slight
- 5. praise , honer or distinction extended by common constant
- 6. affected with or suggestive of maddness
- 11. to move to action: stir up
- 16. one who extorts money or advantages by threats

- 18. to remove or destroy completely
- 19. contry to nature, reason or common sense
- 20. something or money awarded to someone as recompose

Down

- 2. to put away
- 4. have an intense feeling of longing for something
- 7. to feel sorrow for ones sin and determine whats right

- 8. a written statement in which a justice disagree with majority
- 9. hold the attention of someone to transfix
- 10. elderly and infirm
- 12. accept and allow
- 13. internal parts
- 14. to cut with a sickle
- 15. the act of betraying someone or something
- 17. spirted enthusiasm: liveliness, vivacity

Word Bank

- | | | | | |
|--------------|--------------|----------|------------|-------------|
| racketeering | decrepit | entrails | apothecary | repentance |
| glory | incite | verve | reaping | predicament |
| yearn | preposterous | condone | mesmerized | dissent |
| compensation | treason | tenuous | obliterate | maniacally |