

Name: _____

Date: _____

jonathan hall cte q3 vocab

Across

2. following an occupation as a means of livelihood or for gain.
7. typically a package of five or six courses, for credit or not, taken over three to eighteen months. Some cost a few thousand dollars, others much more.
8. - brief written account of personal, educational, and professional qualifications and experience, as that prepared by an applicant for a job.
10. a group of employers which require similar skills from their employees
11. Each college typically requires students to fill out an application that includes: academic records, personal essays, letters of recommendation, extracurriculars, SAT or ACT test scores. Deadlines are unique to each school, and are published on their website. There is typically a fee for sending in the application.
12. any official or formal program to provide practical experience for beginners in an occupation or profession:
16. a wise and trusted counselor or teacher.
17. acronym for Bachelor of Arts and Bachelor of Science. Both degrees can be earned at four-year colleges. Students earning a B.A. or B.S. are called undergrads.
22. - credit given for attending one lecture hour of class each week for 15 weeks or the equivalent. Most college classes are three credit hours meaning they meet three hours each week.
26. acronym for Associate of Arts a degree which can be earned at most two-year colleges
27. to cultivate people who can be helpful to one professionally, especially in finding employment or moving to a higher position
28. a widely used college entrance exam. Exam is just under three hours. Test covers English, math, reading and science. Students receive a score of 1 to 36 on each of the four parts to make a composite score.
29. - acronym for Free Application for Federal Student Aid. High school students fill this out to determine how much financial aid they are eligible for.
30. a school that includes many different schools (ex. the college of nursing, the college of education, etc.) and has grad students. These tend to be larger more expensive institutions.

31. acronym for Master of Arts. This degree can only be earned after earning a B.A. or B.S. Students earning an M.A. are called grad students (since they've already graduated once before)

32. acronym for Career and Technical Education

35. makes it possible for students to apply to any of the 456 participating schools

38. - any education after high school (that means stuff besides going to college!)

40. a person who has control or direction of an institution, business, etc., or of a part, division, or phase of it.

41. - extra resources the employer provides a salaried employee, typically includes medical insurance and payments toward retirement

42. a course you are required to take before you can enroll in another course

43. money from state or federal government for the purposes of attending college. Grants do not need to be repaid.

44. a fixed regular payment

Down

1. a person who designs, builds, or maintains engines, machines, or public works.
3. a person who starts and runs their own business
4. sometimes called "soft skills" these attributes help individuals gain and stay employed. Employability includes areas like: being a good teammate, proper communication and problem solving skills.
5. - an international association of high school and college students and teachers of marketing, management and entrepreneurship in business, finance, hospitality, and marketing sales and service.
6. - money given to a student for the purposes of paying for college. Scholarships can be awarded to students based on academic achievements or on many other factors like race, family background or where your parents work. Scholarships do not have to be repaid.
9. the area of the college that works with the students on using grants and loans to pay for college. Your FAFSA information is shared with the financial aid offices of your top college choices.

13. the cost of classes, labs and miscellaneous fees like a student activity fee or a health services fee

14. a person who works for another to learn a specific skill or trade. A person doing an apprenticeship is called an apprentice.

15. communication that does not involve words (ex. body language, physical appearance, touch)

18. people who have worked with you, or you have worked for, and would recommend you to another employer

19. the action or business of promoting and selling products or services, including advertising.

20. a program that allows students to work part time during the school year as part of their financial aid package

21. A long term job or series of jobs

23. - the field of study a student concentrates on

24. - sometimes called junior college or city college they are primarily two-year institutions granting certificates and A.A. degrees. Some students transfer to university after earning their A.A. Community colleges tend to be smaller and less expensive institutions.

25. must be done, no exceptions

33. - a type of financial aid available to students and parents. Loans must be repaid. Payments typically begin once the student finishes (or leaves) school.

34. related to cooking

36. a group of businesses offering similar products or services

37. - a person engaged in short-term work that requires bodily strength, or manual effort

39. - a widely used college entrance exam. Exam is three hours. Test covers verbal, writing and math skills. Students can earn up to 2400 points.