

Name: _____

Date: _____

julianne's economic crossword

Across

2. based on free trade and competition buyers and sellers make the economic decisions also known as capitalism

4. man made items we use to help us work examples are technology machinery and factories

5. a ban on trade with another country {no trading}

6. goods made in this country and shipped to another countries examples corn wheat chevrolet gmc ford

10. is the total value of the good and services produced in one year

13. being really good at making a few things examples corn peanuts peaches and tires

14. the study of how an area uses limited resources to provide for the want and needs of consumers

16. the government makes all the economic decisions like cuba

17. any items that can be bought in a store examples computers toys and clothes

18. those things that make trade between countries more difficult can be man made or naturally occurring thing examples language tariffs quotas and embargos

19. being really good at making a few things examples corn peanuts peaches and tires

Down

1. what is needed to run a business land labor capital and entrepreneurship

3. no money is used goods and services are acquired through bartering or trading examples you wash my car i will cut your grass trade milk for eggs

7. a tax on imported goods examples are luxury items like jewelry expensive cars and boats

8. workers examples of improvements education and training

9. combines a market economy and command economy most economics are mixed today

11. money

12. materials that come directly from nature

15. goods made in other countries and shipped here examples video games purses phones toyotas hondas proschas