

Name: _____

Date: _____

key term

Across

1. is when decisions are made together, and not just one or two persons dictating what the others must do

4. is a defense mechanism in which controversial behaviors or feelings are justified and explained in a seemingly rational or logical manner to avoid the true explanation

7. is the start of sperm development in boys at puberty. It is the male equivalent of menarche, which is the start of menses in girls

8. Having both male and female characteristics.

12. a permissive style in which parents avoid providing guidance and discipline, make no demands for maturity, and impose few controls on their child's behavior.

13. is a parenting style that is child-centered, in that parents closely interact with their children, while maintaining high expectations for behavior and performance

14. is the time period between childhood and adulthood when physical changes allow for reproduction, i.e. making babies.

15. is a type of social influence involving a change in belief or behavior in order to fit in with a group.

16. The time interval between the beginning of one stimulus and the beginning of another.

17. associated with social incompetence in child, little discussion or explanation

18. is when a person unknowingly causes a prediction to come true, due to the simple fact that he or she expects it to come true.

Down

2. is a type of parenting style characterized by low demands with high responsiveness.

3. behaviors viewed as acceptable for each sex according to societal norms.

5. is a ritual or ceremony marking entrance or acceptance into a group or society.

6. theory, made famous by Albert Bandura, states that social behavior, is learned primarily by observing and imitating the actions of others.

9. consists of an individual's sexual orientation, preferences, gender roles, and how they define their individual sexuality.

10. An identity crisis describes a possible developmental condition associated with Erik Erikson's stages of psychosocial development.

11. is a female's first menstrual cycle...when a girl has her first "period".