

Name: _____ Date: _____

kfx kevin's crossword

Across

2. one of the positive or negative whole numbers or zero
 4. a polynomial of one term
 5. parallel to the ground
 7. lines which do not intersect and have the same slope
 10. rewriting an expression as the product of its factors
 15. the strength of a relationship between two data sets
 16. a representation of a real life situation using an equation or graph
 17. the set of all inputs in a relation (usually x)

18. a relation in which each element in the domain corresponds with exactly one element in the range
 19. determining the arithmetic value of an expression by substituting number values for the variables

20. an expression consisting of the sum of one or more terms in which each is the product of a constant and a variable raised to an integer power

Down

1. the highest power found in a polynomial

3. a quantity whose value does not change
 6. a statement that two algebraic expressions are equal
 8. number pairs where the sign of the radicals or the imaginary numbers are opposites
 9. a rectangular array of numbers written within brackets
 11. the set of all outputs of a relation (usually y)
 12. a set of ordered pairs
 13. the numerical factor in a term
 14. a polynomial of two terms