

life cycles

Across

2. The part of an evergreen that produces pollen or seeds.

3. This process occurs when pollen grains land on a pistil.

4. What term means "to sprout"?

10. It is the part of the seed that protects the embryo.

12. Which part of a plant attracts insects?

13. The part of a plant that produces pollen.

Down

1. The powdery material needed for flowers to reproduce

5. How are the seeds of a milkweed plant mainly scattered?

6. The part of a flower where seeds develop and grow.

7. Which part of a seed develops into a plant?

8. A young, growing plant is called a _____.

9. Which part of a plant grows in the direction of the pull of gravity?

11. Which part of a cone protects the seeds beneath?