

local government Part 2

Across

2. A model of politics that views governments and public services in market terms

6. An election in which city or county voters vote for council or commission member.

9. A populous region typically comprising a city and surrounding communities that have a high degree of social and economic integration.

10. A charter that grants powers, such as home rule, to a single municipal government.

Down

1. A charter that grants powers, such as home rule, to all municipal governments.

3. Office and retail complexes without clear boundaries

4. The physical rehabilitation of urban areas.

5. A model of local government based on market principles wherein a metro area is made up of a series of micropolitical jurisdictions that, on the basis of their services and costs, attract or repel certain citizens.

7. The legal incorporation of one jurisdiction or territory into another.

8. The movement of youth and the middle class from rural areas to more urban areas.