

non fatal offences

Across

- 3. maximum sentence for S18?
7. s20 - foresee occurrence of some harm, case?
12. which case ruled that the victim being elderly or a young child can make injuries more serious?
14. which case shows that assault can be words alone
15. how many years could you be imprisoned for if you have committed a S47 or a S20?
16. which case defines apprehend as anticipate
17. mens rea for S20?

- 19. which case states that GBH must be serious harm?
20. which case shows that words negate assault
21. the actus reus of battery is inflicting what kind of force onto another?
Down
1. what kind of offence is s18?
2. S47 offence is what?
4. mens rea of assault
5. section 39 of which 1988 act talks about common assault?
6. ABH can be both physical and?

- 8. which assault case talks about a caretaker touching girls skirts?
9. what is the umbrella term for assault and battery?
10. which element of the actus reus for assault is defined in Smith v Constable of Woking Police Station
11. what is the second element for the actus reus of ABH?
13. in which case did someone raise a sword above his wife's head?
18. in which case is the mens rea of assault defined