

obedience to authority

Across

- 7. adjusting ones behavior or thinking to coincide with a group
- 8. two conflicting views that cloud judgement
- 9. influence resulting from ones willingness to accept other opinions about reality
- 11. objectification comes from being personally distanced for the subject
- 12. copliance with commands given by an authority

Down

- 1. someone who witnesses disobedience is more likely to disobey themselves
- 2. conducted experiments on the topic of obedience to authority
- 3. when people are self directed they are more likely to take responsibility for their own actions

- 4. when people allow other to direct their actions they pass off reesponsibility for their actions.
- 5. someone who takes place in the experiment (as an actor) along with the other participants
- 6. people will obey authority when they believe the authoitative figure will take responsibility for their actions.
- 10. influence resulting from a persons desire to gain approval or avoide disapproval