

Name: _____

Date: _____

ophthalmology

Across

1. the eye is prepped with what solution?
2. Blephar/o is a medical term for what?
4. removal of the contents of the eye globe is called
7. This condition has an increased IOP that can lead to ischemia and blindness
11. ____ is the creation of a permanent opening in the tear duct for drainage
14. If you are told to place 3 drops Michol OD, which eye is that?
16. Light enters the eye through this

17. When performing a PHACO, this is injected after the corneal incision to protect epithelium of cornea and improve visualization
18. removal of the entire globe of the eye is called an
19. A scleral buckle is done to repair the blood supply from the choroid layer to the ____

Down

3. double vision is called ____
5. Atropine 1% does what to the pupil?
6. ____ is the bending of light rays as they pass through a transparent medium such as aqueous humor

8. A recession/resection of the eye muscles would be done to treat what condition
9. a technique of using a cold probe to freeze tissue
10. a triangular membrane that arises from the medial canthus that may cover the cornea, causing blindness
12. a clogged sebaceous gland on the eye lid is called a?
13. The white, leathery layer of the eyeball is called the
15. This chamber lies behind the iris, but in front of the lens