

pest and dieases

Across

- 5. White powder appears on leaves
- 8. Adults are delicate, grayish black, mosquito-like flies (1/8 inch long) with long legs and one pair of clear wings
- 9. manifest as distorted, streaked or mottled leaves, or by diminishing plant growth and flowering
- 10. Adults are moth-like insects with powdery white wings and short antenna
- 11. Adults are reddish brown or pale in color, oval-shaped and very small

- 12. small , soft bodied, pear-shaped insects that may be green, yellow, brown, red or black in
- 13. They can be as much as 1/16 inch long but before reaching maturity are just a fraction this size
- 14. Adults are often black to gray flies with yellow stripes and clear wings

Down

- 1. Resembles fuzzy gray mold
- 2. Secrete a hard protective covering (1/8 inch long) over themselves, which is not attached to the body

- 3. Adults are very small straw-colored or black slender insects with two pairs of feathery wings
- 4. Super super small they are simalir looking to leaf aphids
- 6. Adults are soft, oval distinctly segmented insects that are usually covered with a white or gray mealy wax
- 7. tapered, translucent, wedge-shaped cylinders that take on a yellow tint
- 15. no circulation throughout roots so they begin to rot

Word Bank

- | | | | |
|----------------|--------------------|-------------|--------------|
| Powdery Mildew | Viruses | Russet Mite | Fungus Gnat |
| Root Rot | Mite | Leafminer | aphid |
| Thrips | Root Aphid | Springtail | Scale Insect |
| Whitefly | Gray Mold/Botrytis | Mealybug | |