

Name: _____ Date: _____ Period: _____

physical and cognitive development in late adulthood

Across

2. _____ refers to acceleration in deterioration of cognitive functioning prior to death.

3. refers to remembering to engage in planned actions in the future.

5. cloudy areas in the lens, resulting in foggy vision and (without surgery) eventual blindness

13. -----, or actual competence and performance

14. the number of years a person born in a particular year can expect to live in full health, without disease or injury

15. refers to a set of disorder occurring almost entirely old age in which many aspects of thought and behavior are so impaired that everyday activities are disrupted

16. the most common form of dementia

17. or array of devices that permit people with disabilities to improve their functioning

18. a homelike housing arrangement for seniors who require more care than can be provided at home but less than is usually provided nursing homes.

Down

1. declines due to hereditary defects and negative environmental influences

4. ---- or species-specific biological limit to length of life (in years), corresponding to the age which the oldest known individual died?

6. the immune system is more likely to malfunction by turning against normal body tissues in an

7. the most common type, which involves deteriorating cartilage on the ends of bones of frequently used joints

8. another term for biological aging

9. _____ is which central vision blurs and gradually is lost.

10. _____, or memory without conscious awareness

11. or very long-term recall

12. a condition in which breathing ceases for 10 seconds or longer, resulting in many brief awakenings.