

Name: _____

Date: _____

poems

Across

3. Poetry written in either rhyme or unrhymed lines that have no set fixed metrical pattern.

5. a French verse form that is made up of five three-line stanzas and a final quatrain.

12. An extensive, serious poem that tells the story about a heroic figure

13. A subversion of the sonnet that takes cues from the ghazal

14. one of the oldest types of poems, also very straightforward

15. originated in Italy and derives its name from the Italian word "sonetto"

16. started as a Malaysian folk poem and grew and changed as it was adapted by western writers

18. A poem written about one self's life

19. its actually not a form poem it's just a term for any poem that takes a visual image or work of art as its inspiration.

20. This type of poem is two lines which may be rhymed or unrhymed.

Down

1. more recent form invented by poet Terrance Hayes,

2. an Arabic form of verse poem that was adopted by medieval Persian poets like Hafez and Rumi

4. A poem that has five lines and creates a mood, picture, or feeling. Lines 1 through 4 are made up of words, phrases or clauses while the first word of each line is in alphabetical order

6. Poetry written in the shape or form of an object

7. Also known as "size poetry"

8. A sonnet consisting of an octave with the rhyme pattern abbaabba followed by six lines with a rhyme pattern of cdecde or cdcdcd.

9. A poem written in unrhymed iambic pentameter and is often unobtrusive.

10. type of Japanese poetry that is derived from the longer renga form

11. A rhyming poem has the repetition of the same or similar sounds of two or more words, often at the end of the line.

17. another word for name poems