

Name: _____

Date: _____

prisoner of

Across

- 4. dry up and shrink- verb
5. To influence someone to do something
7. very brief view - noun
10. a woman who has lost her husband to death and haven't married again.-noun
12. throw in random directions.- verb
15. Piece of cloth, usually worn by women on the shoulders and cables to protect from the cold- noun
16. Big group of people manifesting about a political issue -noun
18. To tremble because of a cold, sneeze, fear,etc -verb

- 19. Normally is a group of employees that stop working as a form of protest about something -noun
20. A typical small house, old fashioned building,normally located at lakes, mountains, etc used as a vacations shelter.- noun

Down

- 1. a long, slender, flexible rod of wood used by a competitor in pole-vaulting -noun
2. Increasing of size, typically by accumulated fluid -adj
3. to move smoothly along a surface while keeping contact with it - verb

- 6. Verb, to begging to growth (as a plant)
8. A continuous dull pain - noun
9. in a way that involves rigid enforcement or that demands obedience- adverb
11. someone o has a big amount of money- adj
13. Lustrous fiber produced by the cocoon - noun
14. a piece of broken ice, glass, ceramic- noun
17. A feeling of jealous of someone else success, possessions, advantages, etc

Word Bank

Wither	ache	strike	induce	slide	cottage	sprout glimpse	shard	envy	Swell	strict	rallie	shiver
to scatter	silk	shawl	wealthy	widow	pole	