

C

Across

- 2. azithromycin causes GI upset due to killing of the healthy gut _____?
- 4. which STI is caused by a bacterial infection and can cause pain when urinating, unusual discharge and bleeding in between periods?
- 9. Azithromycin works by preventing bacteria from producing P_____?
- 10. Doxycycline should be taken with a full glass of what?
- 12. patients under 25 should be tested again _____ months after treatment
- 15. patients should complete the _____ of antibiotics to ensure the infection is treated
- 16. After changing sexual partners patients should get _____? to prevent the spread.

17. doses should be spaced _____ throughout the day

18. which antibiotic is usually taken (2-4) tablets in one dose to treat this STI?

19. taking _____ can help restore healthy bacteria in the gut and relieve GI side effects

20. a weeks course of this antibiotic may be prescribed to treat chlamydia

Down

- 1. What method of contraception should be used if trying to protect against STI's?
- 3. what side effect does doxycycline have that may affect a patients time in the sun?
- 5. azithromycin is a type of antibiotic called a _____?

6. taking medication with food or a _____ may help to reduce nausea and GI side effects

7. doxycycline belongs to a group of antibiotics called _____

8. what GI side effect may azithromycin have?

11. when taking doxycycline patients should apply what - even on a bright cloudy day?

13. how many days should a patient absolve from intercourse for following treatment with azithromycin?

14. if left untreated chlamydia can cause _____