

skills and qualities in health and social care

Across

1. you should do this when being spoken to?
3. when working in care you should always be?
12. when dealing with medication you must have this skill?
13. when working in care you must have good?
14. you should do this to service users to allow them to keep their dignity?

15. when helping the people in the care system you would need to be?

Down

2. you should be what towards other people when working in care?
4. to work in care you must have this especially when working with slow people?
5. when writing reports it would be useful for this skill?
6. you should be cautious of what when working in care?

7. you should have this quality when working in health and social care?

8. you should have this when working in the healthcare sector?
9. when talking to someone it is good to have appropriate?
10. when talking to people in the care system it is good to try and be?
11. you should be this when working in care?