

Name: _____

Date: _____

statistics

Across

- 3. a numerical facsimile or representation of a real-world phenomenon
- 6. results from omitting population members from the sample frame
- 7. used to assign individuals to the two treatment groups.
- 9. measurements of observations from the entire population are used
- 10. a numerical measure that describes an aspect of a population
- 11. a numerical measure that describes an aspect of a sample

Down

- 1. the people or objects included in the study
- 2. when a subject receives no treatment but (incorrectly) believes he or she is in fact receiving treatment and responds favorably
- 4. _____ of the experiment on many patients reduces the possibility that the differences in pain relief for the two groups occurred by chance alone
- 5. characteristic of the individual to be measured or observed
- 8. a group of individuals sharing some common features that might affect the treatment