

Name: _____

the cay

Across

- 2. highly unusual, extravagant, remarkable
5. hiding of light that might be visible to enemy aircraft during a raid
7. to roll or pitch suddenly or erratically
10. a German submarine used during WWI and WWII
13. In the direction away from the wind
14. to scheme, plot
15. front of a ship
16. resistant to authority

19. a small island

- 20. inability to wait
22. Heavy material loaded on board a ship that is used to make the ship steady on the ocean during rough weather.
24. saddened
25. large in quantity
26. to plan, record, and control the course and position of a ship
Down
1. type of West Indian music
3. the right side of a ship

4. to disturb or irritate

- 6. sailing vessel
8. A self-propelled bomb that is shot from a tube of a submarine
9. self-assured
11. water catcher
12. lobster without claws
17. Timothy's way of saying boss
18. back of a ship
21. the left side of a ship
23. an industrial plan for purifying a crude substance, such as petroleum