

the odyssey

Across

2. Odysseus son

7. The god of the sun his cattle are eaten by odysseus crew

10. Odysseus wife

12. God of death the underworld where the shades of dead people reside

13. Two beautiful maidens who dwell in a flowery meadow on an island somewhere between circes island and scylla they tempt passing mariners to their deaths with tantalizing songs of the past

16. Blind poet who authored odyssey and sung odysseus adventures

19. Daughter of zeus goddess of wisdom and patroness of the arts and crafts also known as pallas odysseus is her favorite mortal

21. Epic hero of the trojan war who's trying to return home to ithaca to see his wife and son

22. Suitor who wants to marry penelope killed by odysseus

23. A sea monster with six heads located near charbdis odysseus and his crew must pass her during their voyage

Down

1. Whirlpool located near scylla presented as a female monster

3. Sea nymphs who beguile men with their beautiful voices

4. Ruler of the winds tries to help odysseus once but not twice

5. King menelaus's wife who was abducted by paris ,her kidnapping started the trojan war

6. King of the phaeacians he helps odysseus return home after he tells him all of his tales of adventures

8. The enchantress who transforms odysseus's men into pigs she takes him as a lover eventually releases him and provides advice about the way home

9. Son of poseidon the one eyed cyclops who holds odysseus and his men captive in his cave

11. Blind prophet in the underworld who gives odysseus advice about his future

14. Odysseus father

15. Younger brother of zeus, god of the sea and earth makes father of polyphemos

17. Home land of odysseus

18. Son of zeus the ambassador of the gods, conductor of the dead souls to hades and patron of travelers, merchants and thieves

20. A sea monster with six heads located near charbdis odysseus and his crew must pass her during their voyage

Word Bank

helen

Circe

Heleos

Homer

antinous

polyphemus

aelous

scylla

Tiresias

Athena

Telemachus

sirens

KingAlcinous

Penelope

Odysseus

Hades

poseidon

Sirens

scylla

Hermes

Ithica

Charybdis

Laertes