

Name: _____

Date: _____

unit 1 chapter 2, vocaburlary

Across

- 2. forms a eletrical force between oppositely charged
9. attration between a positive and negative hydrogen atom
10. is a substance that dissolves in a solvent.
12. what is the smallest basic unit of matter?
13. is a polymer made of monomers called amino acids.
14. forms when atoms share
15. compound that remove H⁺ ion from a solution

- 16. the attraction among molecules of a substance is

Down

- 1. substance made of atoms of different elements bonded together
3. are molecules composed of carbon, hydrogen, and oxgen, and they include sugars and starches.
4. are nonpolar molecules that include fats, oils, and cholesterol.

- 5. one particular type of atom that can't be broken down into a simpler substance by ordinary chemical.
6. the attraction among molecules of different substances is
7. is the substance that is present in the greater amounts and that dissolves another substance.
8. is a mixture of substance that is the same throughout it is a homogeneous mixture.
11. atom that has gained or lost one or more electrons.