

Name: _____

Date: _____

unit 4

Across

1. the goal was to stop alcohol abuse and the problem created by it

4. the group worked on the state and national levels to earn women the right to vote

6. the process by which voters can remove elected officials

10. government department and their nonelected employees

11. A movement that responds to the pressures of industrial and urbanization by promoting reforms

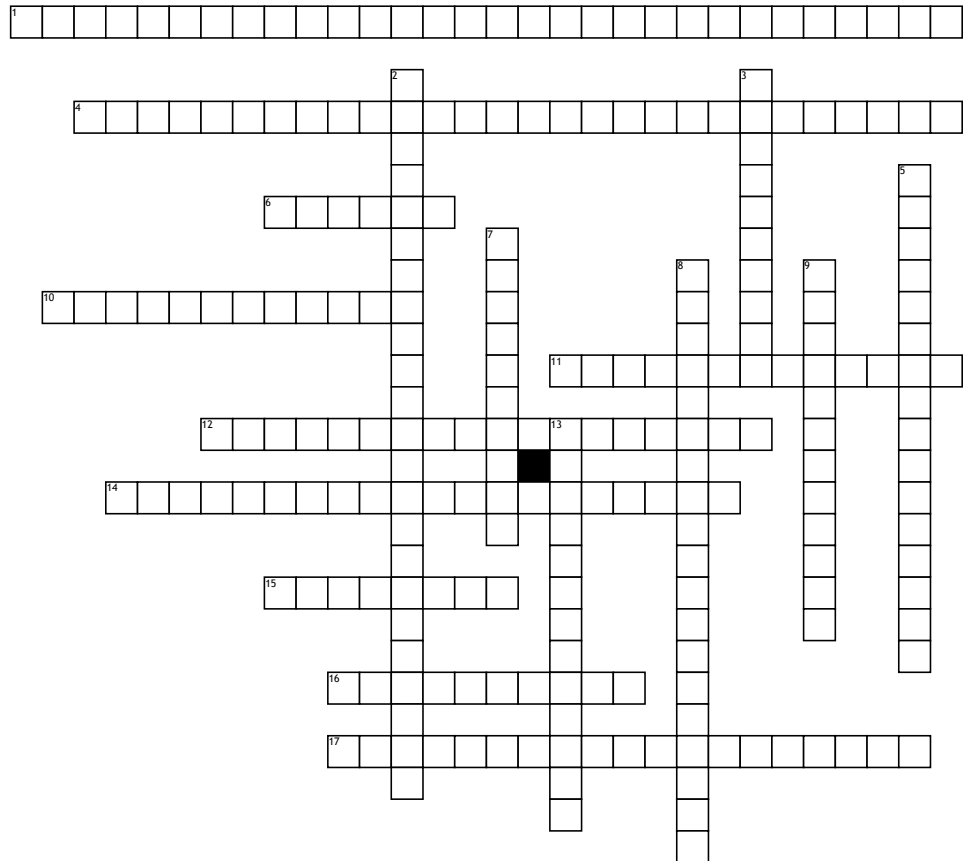

12. it gave the federal government responsibility for insuring

14. Roosevelt's program to keep the wealthy and powerful

15. the right to vote or people

16. a process in which citizens put a proposed new law

17. prohibited monopolies and trust

Down

2. community center that provides service for the urban poor

3. writers who uncover and exposes misconduct

5. political party that emerged for Taft-Roosevelt

7. the process that allows citizens to reject or accept laws passed

8. prohibited monopolies and trust from destroying competition

9. a system in which politicians awarded government jobs

13. allowed voters to select candidates directly rather than having them selected by party leaders