

unit 5 study sheet

Across

3. (adj) to having lost powers of feeling or movement. (v) to dull the feeling , to cause to lose of feeling

5. (n) a noisy quarrel (v) to wear away , rubbing

8. to make calm, quiet, or peaceful

13. the state of being faithful, accuracy in detail , exactness

15. the length of time , something continue or last

16. deep and painful/regret for wrong doing , compunction

18. determined to have one's own way; willful , stubborn

20. to prove incorrect

Down

1. to do clumsily, an awkward botch , to ruin something

2. to remain or stay for a while ; to delay

4. a brief summary, a brief statement: giving a general view of some object

6. greedy, eager for satisfaction, famished

7. an expression of a opinion

9. a person or a creature that lives in or occupies a place

10. with a sharp pain , intense

11. (n) a speech that is loud and threatening way (v) to be loud, noisy , a empty menaces or protest

12. a check to progress ; a reverse or defeat, unexpected

14. one side of something , many sided , especially a gem

17. causing fear because of strangeness ; weird ; mysterious

19. overly self-satisfied, self-righteous