

Name: _____ Date: _____ Period: _____

vocabulary 3.03 and 4.01

Across

3. a government health insurance program that helps older adults pay for medical cost
 11. when a variety of design elements complement each other, providing unity
 13. ability to adjust to new conditions
 16. a person who owns a property and rents this property to someone else
 18. characterized by how the eye is carries through a regular pattern produced
 19. a tenant van assign a lease to someone else kind of becomes like a joint payment
 20. describes how separate parts relate to each other and to the whole in size
 22. involuntary urination or defection
 24. a ringing sound in the ears
 25. produced when light striking an object, is reflected back to the eye

27. a set of rules specifying the minimum standards for a building structure

28. eye condition/ involves damage to the optic nerve/ vision distorted

30. clothing designed for people with disabilities and the elderly who have trouble

Down

1. term used to describe growths or tumors that are cancerous
 2. making sure that home is safe form the child to live in, play, and sleep with out physical harm
 4. legal action brought against tenant and lessee
 5. dealing effectively with a different situation
 6. carrying on family values and traditions
 7. when space on both sides of a central line, real or imagined appear equal
 8. includes ALL relatives in a family

9. focal point of a design, the part that draws attention

10. reproductive capacity declines

12. a deposit of money that a buyer of a property pays at the time of the purchase

14. used to describe growths and tumors that are noncancerous

15. when a binding agreement is violated by one or more parties of the contract

17. body growth that occurs at different rates

21. payment made on a home loan to the bank or lender

23. repetition of an element, or elements in the design

26. ideas and beliefs characterized by a group, social class, or individual

29. a series of points connected to form a narrow path

Word Bank

coping	malignant	adaptation	childproofing	mortgage harmony	pattern	adaptive clothing	rhythm	proportion down payment	ideology	emphasis	family continuation	landlord/lessor assign	eviction	glaucoma	climacteric	color line	extended family	building codes	breach of contract	medicare incontinence	tinnitus	balance	benign	asynchrony