

vocabulary

Across

2. is an American political activist, author, lecturer, and attorney. He is noted for his involvement in consumer protection, environmentalism, and government reform causes.
4. Was an American politician and attorney who served as the 38th president of the United States
5. The privilege, claimed by the president for the executive branch of the US government, of withholding information in the public interest.
6. An official pardon for people who have been convicted of political offenses.
9. a day in April designated for promoting concern for the environment.
12. (National Organization for Women) is an American feminist organization founded in 1966.
13. A pardon is a government decision to allow a person to be relieved of some or all of the legal consequences resulting from a criminal conviction
14. Is an unspecified large group of people in a country or group who do not express their opinions publicly.

15. A political philosophy of devolution, or the transfer of certain powers from the United States federal government back to the states.

17. A threatened penalty for disobeying a law or rule

18. Was an economic phenomenon of the 1970's resulting from a combination of economic stagnation, rising prices and inflation.

20. Treaties governing the canal's international status

21. Was a Republican Party electoral strategy to increase political support among white voters in the South by appealing to racism against African Americans.

Down

1. The refugees who fled Vietnam by boat and ship following the end of the Vietnam War

3. A cultural and political movement that raised awareness of the history of Mexicans and/or Chicanos in North America

7. The Environmental Protection Agency is an independent executive agency of the United States federal government tasked with environmental protection matters.

8. American writer and political activist who was best known for her opposition to the women's movement and especially the Equal Rights Amendment.

10. Human rights are moral principles or norms for certain standards of human behavior and are regularly protected in municipal and international law.

11. The second treaty between the United States and the Union of Soviet Socialist Republics resulting from the Strategic Arms Limitation

16. A period of time in history that is unified by cultural or historical factors.

19. the easing of hostility or strained relations, especially between countries.