

vocabulary week 14

Across

2. excessively smooth, suave, or smug

5. cheerfully optimistic, hopeful, or confident

9. not affiliated with or limited to a specific religious denomination

10. to sail or fly around; make the circuit by navigation

11. the art of writing words with proper letters, according to accepted usage; correct spelling

13. when the sun crosses the equator making day and night about equal in length; usually around March 21

14. mournful, dismal, or gloomy, especially in an affected, exaggerated or unrevealed manner

15. limits or boundaries; guidelines

Down

1. keen insight; shrewdness

3. a person to whom property or power is entrusted for the benefit of another

4. to review by a brief summary as at the end of a speech or discussion; summarize

6. star like in appearance and thought to be the most distant and most luminous objects in the universe

7. to implant by repeated statement or admonition; teach persistently and earnestly

8. needless repetition of an idea especially in words other than those of the immediate context

12. excessive pride of self confidence; arrogance