web design

Across

2. a calender that shows all the events coming up

3. an advertisement

8. a symbol or other small design that identifys what the webste contains

9. statements that have specail reasons and purposes

11. the technique of a photographs of movement when somethings shown in a sequence.

12. the final piece of content at the bottom of each page on a website

Down

1. the process of a way to plan and follow a route

4. the introductary page of a website that holds browsers

5. a titel at the head of a page or section in a book or website

6. A link that allows you to go from one page to another located page on the site.

7. a regularly updated piece of text written by someone browsing the web page

10. a short and memorable phrase used for advitising