

word definitions

Across

3. authorization, sanction, or justification

9. a wrongful entry upon the lands of another.

11. to effect, produce, bring, etc., by or as by magic

12. a complaint or resentment

13. the feeling of displeasure or indignation at some act, remark, person

14. conforming to the recognized standard of behavior

15. extraordinarily fine or admirable

Down

1. conforming to moral and ethical principles

2. a longer, heavier sword, especially of the 16th and 17th centuries, having a double-edged blade and used for slashing and thrusting.

4. violation of a law, command, etc.; sin.

5. boldly courageous; and brave

6. free from obscenity

7. the state or character of being serious

8. to rid, or clear

10. to make larger